Tyrants have taken over the country. It's not an independent kingdom anymore, it's the Horde. The Horde has cut all ties with the outside world. Because people would always rebel against the tyranny. They have to be stopped. Baron Eolarn is the leader of the Horde. And Eolarn is a very sadistic man. Some of the people want to make him king. But, he doesn't want to become a king. He wants to kill people. He wants to punish them. To make them suffer. And in the war, there is a certain boy named Stephan. In the future, glass has replaced metal. Everything is about glass. This element can be easily molded and shaped. But above all, it is strong. In a war, glass is a constant opponent. To a warlord, glass brings pride. He is the best. He is tougher than metal.

And glass is his weapon. The game starts when a young, cute girl named Eolarn falls down on a stone pavement. Eolarn is not on the Horde territory yet. And before she died, Eolarn spoke about a prophecy. She said that some day, she will meet with the boy named Stephan. And that if the Horde attacks Eolarn again, this time they will lose. Because Stephan is the last metal. But Stephan is a metal user. He has metal claws. And this makes him a very dangerous person. This is the game of Glass: Eolarn's War. Who will be the last metal in a war that does not have any borders? Maybe one day, Glass will win. And maybe someday, metal will win. But at this moment, it's the Horde's turn. Do you know how to control the game? The buttons and controls are in the menu. When you select the option, you can choose to change the gamepad to use D-pad or Joystick. It can be extremely difficult at first. But you can always get used to it. ► Game Boy D-pad + ➡ Buttons Q: Quit A: Save T: Tear down tunnels. Fast. Fox Face Kills!

The legendary Match 3 game with the magic and mystery is back! This time, pay attention to the solution of the puzzles, watch the hints for nearby tiles, and just find the objective on the board instead of randomly matching the game! A magic Amulet! The Amulet can be used once per game to create and match any two tiles with the same number of equal sides. If matched, the Amulet magically transforms any two tiles into one tile, giving the player a chance to clear the board using only a single tile! The new and improved Puzzle Game Board! This new Puzzle Game Board is now available for the first time! Make your way through the carefully laid out board, interact with the items, and master the new mechanics! Option new items! * Match the new items in the magical Puzzle Game board! * Free Blocks from the Puzzle Game board! * Watch out for the new Magic Item! * Rid the board of the Bumpers! * Enhance the Amulet to create the ultimate combination! By clearing all tiles on the board and obtaining the "Solitaires" Bonus, you'll be able to play a new game mode where you have to fill the entire board with only three tiles by matching three tiles with the same number of sides. In the new Find the Difference game mode, you'll have to guess where a difference is among eight images! By correctly guessing where the difference is you'll be able to win the game and clear the board. Also, in the new Hidden Object scene you have to find hidden objects in drawings among other objects! Bonus Game Modes: * Three diamonds mode! Your goal is to collect three diamonds. As diamonds move around the board, you have to match them to obtain them. Once you have all three diamonds, you can return to the normal game mode. * Find the Difference! Guess where the difference is between eight images! You'll find out if you are correct and get points by matching all four corners of the icons! * Solitaire! Play to fill the board with only one tile. There are optional hints you can use. Be careful: the Magic Amulet and the new castle are not the only unique items that have been added! The original is also quite full of surprises! Play the game to find the exit and collect the coins to buy the new vehicle. After that you will need to go back to the elevator and escape. It's simple, but to help you play the game c9d1549cdd

It is hinted that you have the power to see the future, to observe certain facts and be able to make a prophecy. There are three small details that give you clues about this. Firstly, you find and read a diary, and then accidentally see the future in a flashback. Secondly, in a later scene, you mention that people used to think you were "a crazy lady." And thirdly, in the first scene, you are shown looking at a photo of the author and feeling like you're there, as if you were a ghost. It is an adventure. You're an adventurer, and you will find yourself in an adventure. It's a world-spanning search for adventure, with a living, breathing world to explore, and Hiveswap Friendsim is the adventure game you were born to play. In this 6th volume of the episodic adventure, you will find yourself guiding the protagonist through a literal and literal pop-culture history, in which the events and characters of Hiveswap: Act 1 are unfolding. You're here for the long game. You're not here for the chase. There are two main factions to the game, and the tension between them will determine the direction that your adventure takes. Will you be able to see the future and get them to love you, like you love them? Or will you fail them, like they've failed you? Will you be a savior, or a destroyer? Where will the adventure end? Who will you be? Features The Hiveswap Friendsim is an episodic visual novel adventure following the efforts of the unnamed protagonist (thats you!) to survive and maybe even thrive on the harsh surface of ALTERNIA. Each episode contains a single, isolated storyline. However, there are 'click' events that will affect how you progress in a non-linear manner. The Hiveswap Friendsim is a visual novel adventure game. Each episode consists of a story that you can play out in your own way, but there are also 'click' events that interact with the world and determine the nature of the events that happen later on. You will be treated to a Hiveswap Friendsim main menu that will serve as a map that will allow you to explore and go back through the game from any point. Explore the Hiveswap Friendsim with the game's map to set your own goals and objectives, and choose from a list of new activities to start each new episode.

Silver Creek Theatre The Silver Creek Theatre is a historic movie theatre located at Macon County Road 544 and Ramsey Road, across from the Macon County Fairgrounds, in Silver Creek, Alabama. The building was constructed in 1937 and is the only remaining movie theater in the Deep South from this period. The theater originally featured 600 moviegoers at 1,000 square feet of seating space. The theater remained in use as a movie theater until 2000, and the current tenant obtained an occupancy permit to remodel it into office space in 2017. The theater is a -story gabled structure that features a tall gable peak, flat roof, and yellow brick covered in yellow stucco. It is one of seven buildings in Macon County listed on the Alabama Register of Landmarks and Heritage in the center of the county, and one of four that were built in the county during the 1930s. The theater was added to the National Register of Historic Places on April 13, 1990.
