There was no issue with Antolin Alcaraz's challenge on Ryan Jack on the stroke of half-time, but Warburton was furious at the decision to award Rangers a penalty for Jim Millar's dive. Referee Willie Collum retired, although he still displayed his cards and the result was a late consolation for the Dons. "That was the most shocking decision I have seen," the Rangers manager said. "It was the first time I have seen an incident like that in 14 years. "It was an absolute disgrace. It is also hard to know what the linesman was doing, he could not have been squared up to, so I am hoping the stewards will look into that and we are disappointed." Warburton was also annoyed at what he perceived to be a cynical substitution by Aberdeen. After the referee's whistle had gone it took a further six minutes for goalkeeper Joe Lewis to get the gloves on and Rangers had a penalty miss - they could have been better placed in the area with their final effort. On the other hand, Lewis made a fine save to deny substitute Michael Devlin. Warburton was aggrieved that one of his substitutes had already been replaced before the final whistle went. "I have never seen a substitution before half-time," he said. "Aberdeen put their shirt in the hands of Ryan Jack, leaving Scott Brown as the last line of defence. "They substituted Ryan after that so why do they need to throw that in?" Warburton admitted that Rangers, who had a few more chances in the second half, did not play at their best. "It was a poor performance today, but we have to look at the positives," he said. e79caf774b
