Road Z Survival: The Last Winter is a game for people who like zombies in a cold, dark world, yet they want a little bit of thrill out of it. We made this game for those who love zombie movies and games like Day Z, and we are actually players like that. While don't expect a good story in this game, it has a very clear story if played right. Also, remember that this game isn't Zombie apocalypse survival, it's survival craft game. You can use that to your advantage, but do whatever you can to survive. Key Features: - 5 scenario levels and 10 challenges - Drive a range of hundreds of vehicles - Alternate directions - More than 20 vehicles - 2+ hours of gameplay - True zombies, the end of the world and other surprises - 1 character with multiple special skills - Hundreds of items, weapons, and other resources - Story line - Tons of zombies and other dangers - Instructions (look at your in-game HUD and the document) - Offline mode - A lot of references, quotes and easter eggs - This game is not a "The Last Winter" - You can play single player or co-op (2-4 player) Road Z Survival: The Last Winter is a part of the Subline games - Subline is an indie game studio that released games such as MARINE: Most Wanted. The games from the Subline team are the games you've grown up with, so we hope you'll find this game to your liking. More information can be found on the official website.
