How to Play

In "The Elden Ring", "the Lands Between", you play as a character who strives to complete the leaderboard in the game. You can review and change the unlocked quests in town with the Quest Log. You can purchase a variety of equipment and accessories in the Item Shop, and use them to boost your stats and skills. You can train your character's combat and magic skills in the Combat & Magic Training section. In this game, you are free to travel around the Lands Between and meet new people to chat with. In addition, certain people have quests to give when you visit them.

There are also features to conveniently access other areas like the defense battle fields, the returning battle guild, the employment screen, and the world map.

You can also add friends and go to festivals with them.

Equipping, equipping, equipping – we've prepared lots of equipment, and you can also directly control the equipment by selecting the button that matches the equipment color.

You can also move equipment via the backpack button. Even though the number of equips has increased, the amount of space remains the same.

Even in the battlefield, you can steadily wield a sword and dagger with a real sword and bladed weapons.

You can also select and combine different combinations of equipment and it is possible to use a combination that is visually different from the others.

There are parts that allow for exceptional usage of equipment. A part such as a face shield allows you to take the hit and not be knocked down.

In addition, you can also acquire experience to enhance your character's stats.

When your mission is completed, you will receive an invitation to the World Map when the player's role

Custom Photo Key Ring Glue For more than 5 years we've been using epoxy resin to make unique jewelry items, always creating a wide range of designs for our client and their friends. Our clients provide us with pictures of their personal items and we customize them to their specifications, keeping their style in mind. We provide both custom photo rings as well as custom photo key chains, which is a fun option for if you are a frequent traveler. If you would like to make your own custom jewelry, go to our Custom Jewelry section and tell us your exact picture. We would be glad to create your desired piece. New Custom Photo photo card holder is manufactured out of silicone and resin. Add dimesions to the design beforehand, and we will custom cut it for you. These are also ideal for keys and medication in a small area. Great for corporate gifts as well. Click here. Setting your jewelry is the first step in the design process. Settings are available for rings, bracelets and earrings. We offer several stones and gems, carvings, encrustations, artistic settings, as well as many other styles which are unique to every design. We also offer custom settings including rings which fit inside your existing frame, so you won't have to take the ring off to put it on your finger. Click here for more info on settings. Rings are the most versatile jewelry item to customize! Make your custom rings out of the highest quality materials such as silver, gold and even platinum. We offer many different ways to personalize the settings, but the most unique thing about it is that the settings can be made to match your existing ring. Whether it be lost or just give you the original ring back, this option would allow you to change your look after the ring is worn down. Some of the settings include using your existing
